Free capacity in spaces meant for placing cable ducts, conduits, and other cables is rented to telecommunications companies for the placement of communications cables.

As a general rule, the rental duct and cable sites are for cables with a maximum diameter of 25 mm. Joining the route has to be executed in a cable manhole or in a duct that ends in the ground. Availability of the rental duct is examined on case-by-case basis.

The minimum length of the duct or tray rental is 20 meters.

A target-specific rental agreement will be concluded on the renting. The rental terms are specified in the rental agreement.
